

The Supernatural Church

“...And grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus”
(Acts 4:29-30).

The church in the Book of Acts was a Supernatural Church. Things happened that went beyond the natural or the normal. Miracles were a way of life. Signs and wonders were constantly being done. Throughout the Book of Acts we see the Lord as the “worker.”

The Book of Acts opens with Luke referring to the former book that had been written; the Gospel according to Luke. This book records what Jesus “...began both to do and teach.” (Acts 1:1) The Book of Acts gives the continuing story of what Jesus accomplishes through His disciples.

After Jesus went back to heaven, the miracles, signs, and wonders continued. He promised that they would.

“...The works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father...” (John 14:12).

“And these signs shall follow them that believe...” (Mark 16:17).

“Behold, I give unto you power...” (Luke 10:19).

In Greek, as mentioned before, the words “miracle” and “power” come from the same root word. When God’s spirit comes inside of the spirit of man it produces a potential that is far beyond imagination. It defies limitations, logic, and the natural. It becomes super-natural.

A Sunday School teacher who was teaching his class on miracles once asked them “What is a miracle?” One smart little boy responded, “A miracle is something that can’t happen, but does happen.” That is a good definition from the mouth of a child.
